

Yoga collection (women)

All our products are made of cellulose from organically grown bamboo which means they are silky soft, remarkably absorbent and odor-free. To ensure flexibility in our yoga clothes, we added some spandex material. URBAN BAMBOO is great for the whole family, even babies with sensitive skin.

- Soft feeling: Bamboo with its round surface structure allows a smooth and comfortably tight feeling to your skin.
- High breathability: Bamboo absorbs and evaporates human moisture 2-3 times better than cotton and keeps you dry fast and for a long time.
- Odor-free: Bamboo's bio-agent "bamboo kun" neutralizes over 70% bacteria, which makes our products odor-free, even after 50 washes.
- Organically grown: Bamboo is an evergreen fast-growing plant in the mountains without pesticides, which makes it an abundant and prime resource used throughout the world.
